Pakistani Culture, Food and Handcrafts Emerged Favorite At International Charity Bazaar held in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Pakistani Handicrafts, Culture and food Cuisine captivated the visitors in a two day International Charity Bazaar organized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Malaysia, in Kuala Lumpur from 16th to 17th of this month.

Pakistan High Commission had setup a stall in the “Global Village” pavilion wherein Pakistan’s artifacts, handicrafts, and exhibits depicting our rich social and cultural heritage were show cased. The exhibits and handicrafts remained hot favorite amongst the visitors and were sold out in a large number.

In the, “World Cuisine Section”, Pakistani food greeted the visitors with its exotic delicacies including the mouth watering Pakistani Beriyani, Kababs, Chicken Qourma, Nan and Gulab Jaman and tested their taste buds with aromatic and spicy flavours and rich taste.

In the, “Small World Section”, Pakistani students of Asia Pacific University College of Technology, Malaysia captivated a large audience with their excellently executed and well rehearsed folk dances depicting the cultural richness of different regions of Pakistan and students of Youth Club enthralled the visitors with their musical tableau.

The young students, Mr. Kamil Akram and Miss Mahnoor Ashraf dressed in traditional costumes joined the, “Little Ambassadors Group”, whereas, Miss Nazia Shabbir surprised the female visitors with her exotic designs of Mehendi, a cherished social tradition of Pakistan.

The event organized by Perwakilan, the association of wives of Malaysian diplomats was inaugurated by Datin Seri Siti Rubiah Abdul Samad, wife of Foreign Minister of Malaysia, Datuk Seri Anifah Aman who later visited the Pakistani stalls and appreciated the exhibits displayed there.

The objective of organizing this event was to provide the Malaysian people an opportunity to enjoy the diversified cultures and customs represented by the embassies through the exhibitions of their cultures, food and goods.

More than 38 Embassies of different countries participated in the event. The proceeds of the Seminar will go to the paediatric wards and welfare organisations in Kuala Lumpur.
